ENTERPRISE RISK MANAGEMENT COURSE FACILITATOR PROFILE:

KEFA NYAKUNDI is a subject matter expert whose unique resume combines practical experience in banking, finance and risk management, training and advisory.

Kefa has held various senior level positions in Risk Management and internal control. As head of various Risk Management portfolios in leading banks in Kenya, he served on Management and Board committees including Asset & Liability Management Committee (ALCO), Risk Management Committee, Credit Committee, Operational Risk Committee and Executive Committee among others.

He is an accomplished trainer and consultant in the region who has carried out various Corporate Advisory and Enterprise Risk Management assignments for banking and non-banking financial institutions in Zimbabwe, Zambia, Kenya, Uganda, Rwanda, Tanzania, Ethiopia, and Sierra Leone, among others.

Kefa is a longstanding accredited Risk Management trainer with the Kenya School of Monetary Studies Furthermore, Kefa is quite visible in the advancement of the Risk Management profession. He was instrumental in setting up the Kenyan Chapter of GARP (Global Association of Risk Professionals) and subsequently served as the Regional Director (RD) of the chapter.

In 2013, Kefa facilitated the formation of Africa Risk Institute (ARI), an accredited training provider for GARP and Chartered Institute of Securities and Investment (CISI) address the need for structured Risk Management training in Kenya.

Kefa initiated and is the convenor and moderator of Africa Risk Forum, an online Risk Management Community with about 300 members on LinkedIn which discusses topical Risk Management issues affecting Africa.

Kefa's qualifications include Bachelor of Commerce (Accounting) Degree, Diploma in Risk Management in Finance and Banking (RMIFB) from Sweden. He is also an Associate of the Chartered Institute of Bankers and a member of the Professional Risk Management International Association (PRMIA) and the Professional Trainers Association of Kenya (PTAK).